MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

We had the pleasure of attending a first class musical entertainment on Saturday evening last at the private residence of one of our citizens, Prof. Oscar Heimer having been engaged as vocal teacher in Miss Bettison's school, at the solicitation of one of the lady teachers in the school Prof. B. with Miss Melanie May, the accomplished young pianist, and two or three of his pupils, gave a musical treat for the benefit of the young ladies of the school. We have not time to speak of the programme in full and say of each performance that which it deserves. It was one of those pleasing occasions which are afforded us too seldom. The fine playing by Miss May and the excellent rendering of the parts song by Prof. Heimer gave evidence of their ability in their professions. We regard Prof. B. as one of the master singers, and Miss Bettison is exceedingly fortunate in securing his excellent services in her school.

New York, Nov. 11.

Arrived from St. Thomas we have the particulars of the great hurricane, which lasted about four hours, tearing up trees, lifting houses from their foundations and dashing them to pieces, ships, steamers, and every vessel in the harbor were cast up on the rocks.

There are thousands on land homeless and suffering. The excitement is very great. It is impossible to estimate the loss. It must be over $100,000.

On the morning of the 20th, there being an indication of a storm, the passengers of the old steamer Conway didn't feel safe to go to sea in her, and wished to be transferred to another vessel. The captain, in case of a storm, they might consider themselves safe in case of a storm. They were accordingly transferred, and both vessels put to sea; but during the storm the Rhone struck on Peter Island, when the master gave the Conway to the captain with the expectation of twelve or fifteen.

The Conway was thrown ashore on Tortuga Island, and all hands saved.

Nothing definite regarding the other ships is known. The express on that vessel, of which report says the town was entirely destroyed, and a number of lives lost.

The steamer Columbia came in at about 10 P.M. and at 2 o'clock early this morning, and six or seven men lost. Her cargo was valued at from one to two million dollars.

The track of the hurricane seems to have been, as in the Marmara from Rio, and the North America, from New York, arrived the day after, never having experienced more than a stiff breeze.
